

It's No Joke! – Anti-knife campaign Call for Tour/ Stage Manager

The project is co-ordinated by The Comedy School in association with The Metropolitan Police and London Councils. This initiative is a project aimed at pupils in years 6 -10 (10-14 years) to address the bladed weapons issue across several London boroughs.

A 35 minute piece of theatre followed by hot seating and workshops will be toured to schools and Pupil Referral Units. The aim of the performance is to encourage awareness and debate amongst young people whilst being delivered in a fun and comedic style.

Requirements:

- Clean driving license and experience of driving a Transit van (please do not apply if this is not the case!)
- Experience of tour and stage management
- Good administrative and communication skills
- It is essential that you are prepared to represent The Comedy School and liaise with schools, police officers, collecting all evaluation documents
- Experience in setting up, maintaining and running lighting and sound systems
- Current CRB (Please do not apply if you do not have a CRB)
- You must be willing to assist in preparing for the tour and packing up at the end.
- To be supportive of the aims of the project and The Comedy School. We recommend you read the information on the website: www.thecomedyschool.com. (Click on projects for Young People)

Successful stage manager will be required to work:

Rehearsals: Monday 6th September to Friday 17th September (Monday to Friday both weeks 10.00am to 6.00pm)

Performance Dates: Monday 20th September to Friday 26th November 2010 (Monday to Friday each week).

Please note: you must be available for the entire period.
